TERRIFIC CRASH

Killing Several People on Ship in a Twinkling

An Appalling Accident on Long Island Sound This Morning

Freight Boat Collided With Passenger Steamer Plymouth of Fall River Line, Carrying Upwards of 500 People--Six Killed.

NEW LONDON, CONN., March 20.—An appalling accident happened on Long Island Sound soon after midnight this morning.

While the passengers of the Fall River line steamer 'Plymouth' were sleeping peacefully in their berths, there was a terrific crash and several lives were crushed out in a twinkling.

The steamer Taunton, one of the freight boats of the Fall River line, had crashed into the steamer Plymouth of the same line, which left New York yesterday afternoon carrying upwards of five hundred passengers.

Shrieks of the dying and injured drowned the shouts of the officers. Fifty feet of the upper works of the Plymouth were carried away in the crash but she was able to come into harbor under her own steam.

The officers who remained cool throughout, mustered the crews at the stations and prepared for the launching of two boats and the life barges. Pumps were tried and it was found that the Plymouth was not making water enough to indicate any danger of sinking. In the meantime it was found that six persons were dead or fatally injured while nearly a dozen more were seriously hurt. The Plymouth steamed into New London, sending up signals of distress and whistling for aid. Tugs were sent to the assistance of the Taunton, which had apparently been seriously damaged in the collision. Only a collision of the bulkhead on the forward part of the vessel saved that from going to the bottom.

THE DEAD.

JOHN WILLIAMS, baker. — DESCO, waiter.

J. DAWSON, second mess man. JOHN MCCARTHY, watchman.

BENJ. COLEMAN, pantry man. WM. BRISTOW, waiter.

FATALLY INJURED.

PATSY DALY, an arm torn off.

The Taunton arrived at 4 o'clock, and the Plymouth is now at the pier here. Her port side for a distance of 35 feet is crushed in.

SEVERAL MURDERS ARE NOW LAID AT THE DOOR OF INDIANA GHOULS

Indianapolis, Ind., March 20.—Evidence that half a dozen murders have been committed by grave robbers, is being collected by attorneys for the state and some of the men indicted by the grand jury for grave robbing.

It is expected that indictments will be returned against the alleged murderers following the testimony of Dr. Frank Wright and Rufus Cantrell who will appear before the grand jury today. The mysterious murder of Doc Lung, the Chinese laundryman, it is now believed, was committed by members of the gang of ghouls, and Rufus Cantrell and Samuel Martin, leaders of the gang, know who committed the crime.

The other mysteries that will be aired are the disappearance of "Roxie" a negro, who operated with the gang of ghouls; the murder of the negro whose dead body was several months ago found on the railroad tracks, mutilated beyond recognition, and the murder of a white man in Cerealinatown.

Cantrell says he was offered double pay for the body of the Chinaman, by one of the prominent physicians of the city. He claims he will tell the grand jury of the Cerealinatown murder and that several prominent men will be implicated.

OPERATOR

REFUSED TO SEND A DISPATCH AND WAS KILLED.

Impression is That Bonilla Will Win and Overthrow Present Head of the Government.

Mobile, Ala., March 20.—News has just reached this port through the captain of a Norwegian fruit steamer of a blood curdling act of the revolutionists at Tela, 25 miles from Ceiba, in Spanish Honduras. A party of rebels after destroying the plantation of Juan Pietros, went to a telegraph office near by and asked to have a message sent to some point, which was refused. They became so enraged that with their machetes they beheaded the telegraph operator and threw his head through the window upon the street, leaving the body upon the floor of the office. Other acts of lawlessness were committed before they took to the bush. This Captain reiterates the report that the country is in a state of confusion and that business interests are suffering greatly. The general impression is that Bonilla will win and overthrow Armas, the present head of the government.

ALFONSO'S

CONDITION IS CAUSING SOME APPREHENSION.

Experts Have Been Consulted and the Queen Mother is Quite Anxious About Her Son.

Madrid, March 20.—Your correspondent is informed on high authority that King Alfonso is suffering from considerable weakness superinduced by persistent colds. Court physicians Alabern and Ledesma feared his majesty was suffering from phthisis, but have failed to find any indications of this trouble. Experts have been consulted. They confirm the diagnosis of the court physicians but state that the king's system is especially susceptible to pulmonary complaint. A quiet methodical life, they say, is most necessary to Alfonso in this warm climate. The king has dropped attendance at the theatres and retires very early. He will shortly go to Andalusia. The queen mother is most anxious regarding her royal son's condition and this alarm is increased by the remembrance that his father died of phthisis.

In round numbers the frozen rabbits imported last year from Australia and New Zealand totaled 11,500,000.

Struck and Killed Three Girls on Way to Work.

Pawtucket, R. I., March 20.—A frightful accident occurred early this morning just over the city line in the town of East Providence. Three young women who were on their way to work in one of the local factories were struck by a locomotive of a Boston train and killed. They were Rose McCauley, Mary Tierney and Bridget Wild. Miss Lizzie McKnight, who was in the party, is seriously injured.

RIVER

GOES STILL HIGHER TODAY AT MEMPHIS.

Break in Levee Below Pecan Point—Strain is Intense—Wind is a Serious Factor.

Memphis, Tenn., March 20.—Contrary to expectations and official predictions there was a rise of one-tenth in the river last night, which carried the reading this morning to 40.1, seven and one-tenth feet over the danger line and 2.7 over the highest water on record. There was further heavy precipitation here and throughout much of the Mississippi valley last night. The crest of the wave is passing, however, and not much further rise is looked for, unless heavy rains fall at this point or below here. A telegram was received at a late hour last night saying that there is a break of 400 feet in the levee at Randomshot, a few miles below Pecan Point, and that the waters are rushing through there with tremendous fury. All along the line from Luxora south the strain on the levees is intense and engineers are having a hard time to keep the situation in hand. The wind has risen some and is proving a serious factor together with the further rise in the river.

Washington, March 20.—The weather bureau this morning gave out the following river bulletin:

"The river situation is practically unchanged. The Mississippi river is about stationary at Memphis and continues to rise below. At New Orleans this morning the stage was 19.6 feet, 1 foot above the previous high water of 1897.

"The conditions from Memphis southward continue extremely critical. Further developments depend almost wholly upon the ability of the levees to hold the water."

Memphis, Tenn., March 20.—It is believed that the crest of the Mississippi river has reached Memphis and that a fall will begin within less than 12 hours. However, the conditions that exist above Memphis with the gap in the levee at Trice's Landing, Arkansas, make it a most difficult and uncertain matter to forecast what is likely to occur in the flood situation.

While the crevasse was not widened to any appreciable degree the levee is overtopped a short distance further to the north, and the flooded Mississippi is discharging much water at both this point and at the crevasse.

A difference of between four and five feet exists in the height of the water on either side of the levee at the crevasse, and the rush of water through the opening is terrific. The St. Francis Levee Board made a second effort to send the tug Diana and a barge through the crevasse to assist in rescuing people and live stock from the flooded area in Arkansas, but the idea was abandoned, as the fall is so great and the rush of water so strong that it was feared the tug could not safely pass through. About 100 yards west of the levee there is a belt of heavy timber, and the current sweeps against the large trees with force sufficient to make them sway with violence. This condition made it most probable that the tug would be swept into the timber by the force of the current and disabled.

Reports from the flooded Arkansas district are more favorable.

The saloon is now prohibited in but four states, Maine, New Hampshire, Kansas and North Dakota.

WAITED

Till Posse Drew Near

Then Insane Man Drew Guns And Fired

SHOTS WERE RETURNED AND HE WAS SOON DEAD.

A DEPUTY WAS FATALLY SHOT

And Others in Party Were Dangerously Injured—Had Terrorized Citizens—Unknown Man.

Lebanon, Ky., March 20.—As the result of a fierce battle between a crazy man whose identity is unknown and a sheriff's posse, composed of Deputy Sheriff Jim Williams and three men, one is dead, another dying, another dangerously wounded and two others shot, but not seriously injured. The dead:

Unknown man, stranger, apparently 35 years old.

The wounded:

For several days past people who live near Penick, a little village six miles above this place on the L. & N. railroad, have been frightened by the actions of a strange man who has been prowling through the country. Several who saw him stated that he was armed and that he ran away when any one attempted to approach him. The neighborhood became greatly excited and the matter was reported to the authorities.

The strange man appeared at the store of W. H. Smith at Penick, and to the clerk, whom he called outside, said that there was a moo after him, led by Detective George W. Hunter of Bardstown, and that if it caught him it was going to hang him for insulting two white girls.

He swore that he was not guilty of any such charge and asked the clerk to write to his mother, who he said lived in Mason county, that he was not guilty. While he was talking some one drove up in a buggy and he ran away.

The young man who had this conversation with the stranger told Deputy Sheriff Williams of what had taken place and the latter summoned a posse and started in search of the man. He was found walking leisurely through the woods about a mile and a half from Penick.

When he first saw the posse approaching he attempted to escape by running. He ran but a short distance and then stopped, as though waiting for them to come up to him. When within a few feet of him the stranger drew two pistols and fired. Devers and Williams fell, but Williams partially arose and emptied his gun at the maniac. Two of the shots took effect in the crazy man's head, inflicting injuries from which he died in a few minutes, not, however, until Floyd and Payne had been shot by him.

Williams is 53 years old and has been Deputy Sheriff for the past three years. He is still alive, but physicians say there is no hope for his recovery. The others injured in the battle are resting as well as could be expected, but the wounds of both Floyd and Devers are more dangerous than were at first reported. There was nothing found upon the dead man that would aid in leading to his identity. Besides a gold watch, $4.25 was found in his pocket.

Washington, March 20.—At a cabinet meeting today the flood situation along the Mississippi river was discussed, and the secretary of war was authorized in his discretion to extend all aid possible to the flood sufferers in the matter of shelter. He will communicate with the governors in the flooded district and offer them such tents as the army has at its disposal.

LAD

Killed Himself to Avoid a Beating From Father.

Philadelphia, March 20.—Joseph L. Carter a colored boy, aged 12, deliberately committed suicide this morning to escape a beating at the hands of his father. He jumped from a window to the sidewalk, 60 feet below, after first removing part of his clothing, and saying "I want to leave the world the same way I entered it." The father has been held for the coroner's investigation.

New York, March 20.—It is said at the hotel where Beriah Wilkins, proprietor of the Washington Post, is stopping, that he is better and steadily improving.

PALMA'S SON

SECRETLY MARRIED TO GIRL IN NEW YORK.

Young Man Weds Daughter of a Prominent New Yorker—The President of Cuba Notified.

New York, March 20.—It is learned that Jose Estrada Palma, son of Tomas Estrada Palma, President of the Cuban republic, and Miss Mabel Jacobs, a student of the Normal College, and daughter of David B. Jacobs, a wealthy tobacco importer, were privately married on February 11. Young Estrada Palma, who is a student at Columbia University, went to Washington yesterday to consult with Gonzales de Quesada, the Cuban Minister, and to request him to break the news of the marriage to his father.

The young couple had been acquainted about a year. On the afternoon of February 11 they went, accompanied by Miss Jacob's sister, to the parsonage of the New York Presbyterian church, in Harlem, where they were married by Rev. Duncan McMillen, after which the bride returned to her father's home. Fear of the parental objection is said to have been the cause of the secrecy of the marriage.

Mr. Jacobs was greatly surprised when he heard the report of the marriage, and stated that his daughter had denied the truth of the story. It is now known however, that the marriage really did take place and that Senor Quesada, Minister of the Cuban Republic at Washington, has been asked by young Palma to use his good offices to effect a reconciliation between him and his father, whom he fears will be much embittered by the news of his secret marriage. Young Palma is a Roman Catholic and his wife belongs to the Hebrew faith.

Washington, March 20.—Minister Quesada says that young Palma has already informed his father of his marriage to Miss Jacobs and that in all probability he will take his bride to Cuba next June.

OHIO IS CHOSEN AS HEADQUARTERS

New Orleans, March 20.—The National Woman's Suffrage association began its annual convention yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt presiding.

The headquarters of the association were changed from New York to Warren, O., where Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, the national treasurer, will direct the work, with Miss Elizabeth Hauser as office secretary. This will enable Mrs. Catt the president and Miss Gordon, the secretary, to retain their offices for a year without the cares of routine.

In the afternoon there was a reception at the residence of Mrs. Reuben G. Bush, with the Era Club as host.

At night there was a public meeting at the Athenaeum. Mayor Capdeville welcomed the visitors. Susan B. Anthony and Rev. Anna Shaw were among the speakers.

The Korean government is considering the advisability of introducing universal conscription.

MUCH INTEREST

Attaches to Testimony That Mrs. Burdick Will Give

Public Today Asking All Kinds of Questions.

Friends of Pennell are Undertaking to Supply a Reason for His Writing That Astonishing Letter to Dead Man's Widow.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 20.—Friends of Arthur R. Pennell have undertaken to supply a reason for his writing to Mrs. Burdick that "there are times when his (Burdick's) manner to you make me want to kill him." They said that even some of Burdick's friends would agree with them in the assertion that on a certain occasion, in his own home, Burdick seized his wife and compelled her to sign a paper. They say that at the time Mrs. Burdick signed the paper she was not aware of its purport and that it turned out to be an order on the safe deposit company where Mrs. Burdick had a private drawer or box, giving Burdick access to the drawer and the power to possess himself of its contents. They add that Burdick armed with this signed paper went to the safe deposit company and opened Mrs. Burdick's drawer and extracted therefrom private papers belonging to her, which included letters from Pennell to Mrs. Burdick and reports of detectives on Burdick's movements.

"Did this occur after December, 1900?" they were asked.

"Yes, it was after that," was the reply.

"But the Pennell letter to Mrs. Burdick, saying he wanted to kill Burdick was written in November, 1900."

"Very true, but Pennell wrote letters to Mrs. Burdick some of them long after that date and also the significant episode was not the first in which Mr. Pennell deemed Mrs. Burdick was being treated harshly by her husband," was the reply.

They continued the explanation by saying that beyond any question Pennell had a great influence over Mrs. Burdick.

What Mrs. Burdick will testify to on the witness stand Monday next becomes all the more interesting in the light of the latest developments and the public is beginning to ask what will she say about the paper she signed giving her husband authority to open the drawer in the safe deposit vault. Will she say the dead man seized her or that he forced her to sign the paper without her knowing its purport, or will she reverse her friends and say she signed it willingly? Will she tell of the want-to-kill letter? Will she throw light on how the dead husband came to have possession of it? Will she tell how Pennell dared to come to write such a letter to her? Will she tell of the shadowing and counter-shadowing by the detectives? Will she swear she was ignorant of all or will she have knowledge of both Burdick and Pennell hiring detectives? If so, why did Burdick hire them and doubly why did Pennell hire them? Will she remember ever having written letters

MRS. BURDICK

HIRE DETECTIVES TO FIND HUSBAND'S SLAYER.

Confident that Pennell Was Not Guilty of the Murder as He is Charged.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 20.—Disgusted with the failure of the police to discover the murderer of her husband, Mrs. Alice Hull Burdick, widow of Edwin J. Burdick, has engaged the services of a private detective agency, and commissioned its management to spare no effort to track the slayer of the man who had cast her off.

Mrs. Burdick does not believe that Pennell was the murderer of her husband. Her mother, Mrs. Hull, shares the belief that the person who killed Mr Burdick is still alive.

"When Mrs. Burdick takes the stand next Monday," said Lawyer Hartzell, "she will tell the truth as to her relations with Pennell, Pennell's relations with her and her husband, and everything she knows that may possibly throw any light on the mystery."

"If she is asked who the murderer was, she will answer that she neither knows, nor has a strong suspicion against any one person. I know that statement is true. I have spent days with Mrs. Burdick and Mrs. Hull since the murder trying to get them to say there was some person whom they might suspect. We have discussed the affair and have carefully considered the possibility of each and every person who has been mentioned as

LOCOMOTIVE ON FIRE RACED LIKE RUNAWAY COMET THROUGH JERSEY

Elizabeth, N. J., March 19.—While dashing through Metuchen at a mile a minute clip the cab of the engine of the New York and Washington express on the Pennsylvania railroad burst into flames and, with the oil and coal on the tender ignited, raced like a comet through the night for several miles.

The engineer and fireman narrowly escaped cremation. The express was ten minutes late and the conductor ordered an effort to make up time. The fireman's side of the cab ignited from the back draught from the first box after leaving Metuchen.

In response to his shouts, Engineer Lyons went to his aid and before the engineer could regain hold of the lever to shut off the power, the cab was a roaring furnace. The men fled to the tender and thence to the front platform of the first car. During a hull Lyons fought his way back to the engine, which was running at a terrific speed and managed to reach the whistle cord and the train crew and passengers stopped the train with the emergency brakes.

Sid B. Levingston.

It is generally conceded that the most important board of administration under the new code is the Board of Public Service, which will consist of three members. Men elected to membership on this board should be well known for their honesty and as being in touch with municipal affairs. Three such men are presented to the voters this spring by the Democratic party—the three "L's", Lamb, Linehan and Levingston, and it is almost certain that this alliterative trio will be successful. Each has peculiar qualifications for the office which complement those possessed by the other two. It is of Sidney B. Levingston that we now wish to speak more particularly.

There is no man in Newark better known throughout the county than Mr. Levingston. He was born in Mary Ann township, and was nurtured in that cradle of Democracy. Before moving to Newark over 20 years ago, he served as constable of the township and gained a reputation as being a conscientious, fearless officer, who possessed rare good judgment.

Fourteen years ago, without a doubt, he embarked in the livery business and by fair dealing and attention to his own affairs he has built up a most successful patronage. During this time he has on many occasions, furnished free of all charge teams and rigs for funerals and other occasions, to those less fortunate than himself.

Everyone who knows him will not hesitatingly say, that a more whole-souled, genial and unselfish man never lived than Sid Levingston. Both in private and political life Sid Levingston has been the soul of honor. Today business men who have had dealings with him say that his word is as good as his bond. Every obligation he meets with promptitude and honor.

No one can cast a slur on the private character or public honesty of Mr. Levingston. He is a man who does not use tobacco or liquor in any way, shape or form, and his business and domestic relations are most felicitous.

When elected all the people will find in Mr. Levingston an ideal public official. He comes from the people and their interests will be conserved by him to the best of his ability.

There is no rancor or bitterness in Sid Levingston's heart. He was a candidate for commissioner last fall, and in the general Democratic disaster in the county, went down to defeat, but undaunted and without resentment, he stands ready and willing as before to give his best efforts to the success of his party.

The citizens of Newark will do well to ponder well before any should cast their votes against Mr. Levingston. The Advocate will have more to say about Messrs. Linehan and Lamb and also about the other Democratic candidates during the campaign.

MISUSE OF INJUNCTIONS.

The Republican Kansas City Journal makes a brave effort to defend government by injunction as practiced by Judge Adams at St. Louis in the Wabash case by declaring that the train men were not ordered to remain at work—the officers of their organizations were merely commanded not to advise nor to persuade them to quit work.

This will do very well, indeed, for a primary lesson in casuistry.

In point of fact the injunction has prevented the Wabash employees from quitting work, for they cannot very well engage in the strike which they contemplated without the advice and persuasion of their leaders.

The men have shown a most commendable spirit in obeying the order of the court, and in taking steps to secure its modification. Strikes are bad, but there are things that are worse, as, for instance, judicial oppression and popular disrespect for the courts.

There are two ways in which the scandalous misuse of the writ of injunction may be checked and its evils eradicated. One of these is to challenge some high-flying life officeholding federal judge with a bill of impeachment. The other, and the better one, is to procure effective legislation by Congress that will place government by injunction without the pale of the law. But the Republican party will never permit such legislation. It can only be procured by the return of the Democratic party to power.

Church people in New Haven, Conn., seem to mix their religion with politics in a way that is most reprehensible. Certain of them have quarantined against William J. Bryan, and the New York Commercial says, have requested the pastor who entertained him during a recent visit to resign!

The same crowd would have quarantined against Jesus after he drove the money changers out of the temple, and would have joined with the rabbi that cried "Crucify Him!"

WIDOW WILL LOSE

Royal Arcanum Insurance Withheld Because the Assessment Was Not Paid on Time--Sustained By the Court--The Point at Issue.

St. Louis, March 20—In the United States Circuit Court of appeals an opinion was handed down by Judge Thayer which is of interest to fraternal organizations and members who are insured against death in these organizations.

George F. Taylor, a member of the Royal Arcanum, Arapahoe lodge of Denver, Colo., died in November, 1900. Payment to his widow, Anna J. Taylor, of $3,000 insurance certificate was contested on the ground that he had not paid the monthly assessment of October, 1900, due on the last day of that month, and was therefore suspended, according to the by-laws.

The collector failed to pay Taylor's assessment for October, as he had been in the habit of doing when overdue and when it was tendered three days later, just before Taylor's death, it was refused on the ground that under the by-laws Taylor was under suspension.

Mrs. Taylor recovered judgment against the supreme council, which appealed. Judge Thayer, writing the opinion, says the question at issue is to determine whether the supreme council was cognizant of the practice of the collector in accepting the assessment of Taylor after he was delinquent and whether it ratified such practice by accepting the delinquent's assessment in violation of its by-laws.

He finds nothing in the evidence to warrant this assumption and orders the case remanded with instructions to the trial court to instruct the jury that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover.

Mock Wedding

It is said that a mock wedding was held Thursday evening at the home of the "bride" on Mt. Vernon road. None but young ladies were admitted, the affair having been planned secretly. Young women in evening suits and military uniforms took the part of men. The Episcopal service was used and the clergyman, a tall brunette, wore full vestments.

An interesting feature of the application of electricity on shipboard is the so-called Schottky telegraph, or bulkhead telegraph. In the moment of danger caused by a collision this telegraph enables the captain on the bridge to see whether all the watertight doors are closed or not.

DROWNING

Charged by Guernsey County's Coroner to the Temperance Element of a "Dry" Town.

Zanesville, O., March 20—The Coroner of Guernsey county, Cambridge, a "dry" town, has just rendered a remarkable verdict based on the finding of the body of Daniel Schultze, who died of drowning. The verdict in part is as follows:

"After having heard the evidence and examined the body I find that the said deceased came to his death by accidental drowning while in the state of intoxication, and that the liquor that intoxicated the said Daniel Schultze was purchased at the so-called 'substitute saloons' located in Cambridge, Ohio.

"Furthermore, I find that the 'substitute saloons' are responsible for the said accidental drowning, but I more especially hold the leaders of the temperance cause responsible for not enforcing the law and for permitting said saloons to run openly and to sell intoxicants in violation of the laws of the State of Ohio governing such local option municipalities as Cambridge, Ohio.

It is a standard remedy, a specific for all blood troubles and unequalled as a general tonic and appetizer. S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable, the herbs and roots of which it is composed are selected for their alterative and tonic properties, making it the ideal remedy for all blood and skin diseases, as it not only purifies, enriches and invigorates the blood, but at the same time tones up the tired nerves and gives strength and vigor to the entire system.

For Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Blood Poison, Malaria, Anaemia, Scrofula, Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Acne and such other diseases as are due to a polluted or impoverished condition of the blood, nothing acts so promptly and effectually as S. S. S. It counteracts and eradicates the germs and poisons; cleanses the system of all unhealthy accumulations and soon restores the patient to health. CUTTING AFFRAY

In B. & O. Yard Here Thursday Night, John Sorke
Being Severely Hurt by a Fellow Laborer
Joe Kovats—Latter Arrested.

As a result of hard feeling that has existed between them for some time
the cause of which could not be learned,
John Sorke, a Hungarian laborer, was viciously assaulted and cut about 9 o'clock Thursday night, by a fellow workman, Joe Kovats.

The men were employed in the B.
& O. yards on the ash pit, when the cutting occurred, and belong to a colony of Huns, who have been brought to Newark from time to time by the B. & O. It is extremely difficult to glean much information from them as most of them are unable to speak a word of English.

Sorke, after the cutting, was taken to his boarding house, at Rudolph El-sert's, 197 North Cedar street, and through Mrs. Elsert, a very intelligent German woman, who speaks Hungarian fluently, the wounded man's version of the affair was secured with considerable detail of circumstances.

The two men with some others, came to this country last July, from Diasapogard, Hungary, and came almost directly to Newark.

Kovats and Sorke boarded at the same place on Baltimore street, until Wednesday, when the latter left the place and secured board and room at Elsert's, as he said on account of the surliness and ill temper of Kovats.
There was no open rupture between them, but it was evident that they had no use for each other.

Sorke went to Elsert's Wednesday afternoon, his bucket was packed with his evening lunch and he worked Wednesday night Thursday several strange Hungarians came to Newark, and a sort of reunion was held at the Baltimore street boarding house, which Sorke attended. There was considerable liquor consumed, but Sorke returned about 3:30 in the afternoon and Mrs. Elsert said he was perfectly sober. He slept for a couple of hours, and then got up and went to work,
his duties being at night.

Kovats is said to have been considerably under the influence of liquor, and after working an hour or so, fell into a doze, from which he was aroused by Sorke, who told him to get to work and help clean an engine which had come on the pit. Kovats replied in a surly manner and made no movement to arouse himself. He was again accosted by Sorke, and strong language was used with the result that Kovats drew a dirk knife with a blade almost four inches long, and plunged it into Sorke's side. The man fell, as was thought, mortally wounded, but he got to his feet and was assisted to the office of Dr. B. F.

Barnes, on East Main street, who attended him.

The physician found that the wound was about three inches long. The knife had entered on the right side above and to the right of the nipple, and between two ribs. It followed this course, cutting entirely through to the thoracic cavity, exposing the lung. The lung substance however had not been touched with the knife, as there is a space between it and the wall of the thorax. The patient was in a condition of shock, but the doctor immediately saw that the cut was not necessarily fatal as was at first supposed.
The gaping wound was closed with 14 stitches and the man was removed to Elsert's place, where he is getting along in the best manner possible.

If no unforeseen complications set in he will rapidly recover.

Kovats is given a bad reputation by Sorke, who says that on two previous occasions he was in similar trouble in the old country. The last time he served nine months for attempting to kill a man with a knife.

Mrs. Elsert says that Sorke is a peaceable man, sober and industrious.
She is inclined to the opinion that Sorke gave his assailant no reason for attempting to kill him.

After the cutting Lieutenant Sutto-ard Officer Brooke went to the B. & O. yards and arrested Kovats without any difficulty. They were assisted by B. & O. Officer L. N. Wise. The fellow was locked up in the city prison an this morning appeared in police court with an interpreter, who could speak little more English than the man himself. Mayor Ferry set the preliminary hearing for 8 o'clock Saturday morning.

more of loading before the holidays. Therefore, his intention to again ask the law makers to give Cuba reciprocity is very weak.

The Cuban treaty ratified by the Senate in an amended form was negotiated in Havana in December, 1902. As ratified by the Senate it provides that all merchandise produced by either country which now enters the other duty free shall continue free of import duties. All other Cuban products imported into the United States shall enter at a reduction of 20 per cent from the rate of duty imposed by the United States on such articles of merchandise. All imports into Cuba from the United States not entitled to free entry shall be given a reduction of 20 per cent, provided they do not fall within the certain classes on which a greater reduction in duty is made.

Machinery and apparatus of copper or its alloys, or machines and apparatus in which copper or its alloys enter as the component or chief value, cast iron, wrought iron and steel and manufacturers thereof, and articles of crystal and glass, except window glass are allowed a reduction from the regular tariff of 25 per cent.

STATE BANNER

TO BE PRESENTED TO CEDAR CAMP MARCH 28.

An Initiation of Candidates—Others Were Ballotted Upon—The Woodmen's Big Meeting.

On Wednesday evening, March 18th, Cedar Camp, Modern Woodmen, held a very interesting meeting with 140 members present, among whom were the members of the Camp from Hoboken, who arrived on the 8 o'clock Buckeye Lake car in response to an invitation recently issued them to visit Cedar Camp in a body.

The work was exemplified by the officers and team to the entire satisfaction of the visitors as well as the four candidates initiated. Eleven applicants were ballotted on and accepted for membership. A committee had arrangements made for the proper care of the members and visitors and oysters were served all present. At the conclusion of the work Chief Forester Richardson presented a 5 minute silent drill by his team of foresters.

County Recorder James Rutledge being one of the candidates, favored those present with a neat little speech, highly praising the officers and team on their ritualistic work. Thomas E. Adams made one of the "warmest" candidates the team has tackled in some time.

A telegram was read from National Secretary Charles E. Whelan of Madison, Wisconsin, saying he would be in Newark and present Cedar Camp with the State Banner on Saturday night, March 28th, 1903. A program will be arranged and the presentation will be made in the Auditorium. Neighbor Whelan is one of the leading fraternal men of the day, and is Past Grand Master of the Masonic Fraternity. He delivered a lecture in Newark about two years ago, and all Woodmen are delighted to know that he is to be with us. Director Murphy was unable to attend on account of press of business and the members of Cedar Camp feel grateful toward him for sending so able a substitute. Tickets for Auditorium will be placed in the hands of a committee and at office of Camp Clerk Murphy. The presentation of the State banner is something the membership may never witness again and all should attend with their wives and friends. Children occupying seats will not be admitted. It would be hard to find in the entire jurisdiction a camp with more enthusiasm and good feeling than is to be found in Cedar Camp.

Washington, D. C., March 20—As a result of a conference this morning between Senor Quesada, the Cuban minister, and Assistant Secretary of State Loomis, the former has sent a cablegram to President Palma urging him to immediately call the Cuban Congress together in special session to ratify the amendments to the reciprocity treaty, adopted by the United States Senate yesterday. Under the terms of the treaty exchange of ratifications must occur before March 21, to save it from failure. Therefore the amended treaty must be sent to Havana, the Cuban Congress must be called in extra session and agree to the amendments and then the exchange of ratifications must take place in this city. In view of the fact that only 10 days remain in which all this is to be accomplished, grave fears are entertained as to the action of the Senate in amending the treaty, which may result in killing it.

Washington, March 20—The extraordinary session of the Senate came to an end yesterday afternoon with its work only half done. It ratified the so-called Cuban reciprocity treaty by a vote of 50 to 16, one of the 16 voting in the negative being a Republican senator—Bard of California. California is a great producer of beet sugar.

The adjournment was taken in secret session, something that has not been done for more than a century, or since the Senate gave up the practice of doing all its work in secret. When the sitting was begun yesterday it was supposed the formality of adjourning would be observed in public, but it was not.

Republican leaders in sympathy with the views and desires of the administration are not backward in saying the work of the Senate was called to do is only half done. The canal treaty constitutes the half that was performed. The reciprocity treaty is in such shape textually and from a 'formal point of view that it might as well have been defeated outright.

The Cuban Congress may agree to the changes in the treaty as ratified, but it is not likely to do so, because the result would hardly be worth while. The amendment recommended by the Committee on Foreign Relations and agreed to by the Senate, requiring the assent of the House of Representatives before the treaty can be effective, means that the exchange of ratifications could not be made before January. By that time the Cuban Congress will also be again in session.

The amendment was adopted for no other purpose than to make reciprocity almost impossible and to severely test the President's declaration, made at Pittsburgh on July 4, that reciprocity "will come, as sure as fate."

When the killing amendment was agreed to by the Committee on Foreign Relations the President took under consideration the advisability of calling Congress to meet in extraordinary session. He thought so seriously of doing so that some men who talked with him thought he would surely issue a call for October 1. But he has practically abandoned this idea. When asked what he thought of that suggestion he said that if he called the lawmakers together he would do so to meet about the middle of November. That would enable all those engaged in campaigns for reelection to finish their work.

But Senators who are really his friends tell him that that would do no good, because two weeks added to the regular session beginning in December would merely mean two weeks

Weak, Nervous, Worn Out Women

Bloodless, Irritable, Despondent Women,

Subject to all sorts and varieties of nervous troubles, the result of uterine and ovarian derangements find a Positive Cure

Dr. A. W. Chase Nerve Pills

A medicine that goes to the root of the trouble, and cures to stay cured, by nourishing the impoverished nerve centers and resupplying the nervous energy.

The world is full of women whose daily life is one long struggle against diseases peculiar to their sex—whose days and nights are full of quiet, patient suffering. The head the seat of pain and pressure—the result of nerve depression and physical weakness brought on by uterine or ovarian trouble—the nerves on edge—inclined to laugh or cry at anything—an ever present dragging in the back, hips and limbs—a feeling of utter weariness—lassitude and despondency. To these people the Dr. A. W. Chase Nerve Pills are of incomparable value, having as they do the power to rebuild, to reinvigorate and resupply every organ, every nerve, every muscle with the lost energy, and to insure complete return to health, wealth and vigor again.

ALL WORN OUT.

MRS. ELSA FAISER of No. 43 Main St., Oncontia, N. Y., says: Last summer I was in bad shape—all run down in health—no appetite and poor digestion—I did not sleep well and felt tired and languid all day. I was pale and the circulation was poor—I doctored all summer with no improvement. Seeing Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills recommended I got a box and used them, and they thoroughly cured me—no more dullness or headaches—sleep sound and refreshing—appetite good—digestion perfect—blood rich—circulation good—color excellent, in fact vigorous and strong in every way. I can't speak too highly of the medicine as it certainly is a grand one.

WEAK AND NERVOUS.

MRS. JOHN BAILEY of Jackson St., Penn Yan, N. Y., says: "I was told that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills were a great nerve medicine, and as I needed one badly, I got a box. My nerves were very weak—I lacked ambition and strength and my heart action was very weak. I used the Pills as directed and they made my nerves quiet and steady—the heart action strong and regular and the appetite good, my sleep became restful and I feel altogether like another person. I think as a remedy in female complaints as well they are grand, curing headaches and heavy, dragging feeling rapidly and easily—I know from experience, and I am glad to recommend them."

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS—Signature and portrait of Dr. A. W. Chase on each box of the genuine. For sale by dealers, 50¢ a box, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., 257 Washington St., Buffalo, N. Y.

BOWEN

Sends Ultimatum to Powers

Venezuela Will Not Pay at All

UNLESS ENGLAND REFERS THE CASE TO HAGUE.

ON VERGE OF A DISAGREEMENT

Which May Wreck the Entire Negotiations—Note Sent to the British Ambassador

New York, March 20—A Washington dispatch to the Herald is as follows:

Venezuela and the allied Powers are on the verge of a serious disagreement which may wreck the entire negotiations.

If England does not complete the negotiations of her differences with Venezuela by referring the dispute to The Hague she will be paid nothing out of the customs now being set aside for the liquidation of the republic's debts. If her allies, Italy and Germany, refuse to go to The Hague they will not be paid.

This is the purport of a note just sent by Herbert V. Bowen, Venezuela's special diplomatic representative here, to Sir Michael Herbert, British ambassador. Mr. Bowen acted upon information that the allies were disinclined to carry to The Hague their demand for payment before the peace powers are paid.

He informed Sir Michael that if England did not consent to go to The Hague, Venezuela would not feel obliged to pay her anything out of the 30 per cent of the customs of Puerto Cabello and La Guayra.

Mr. Bowen reminded Sir Michael that the first protocol between Venezuela and England provided that the customs should be paid to the creditor Powers in conformity with the decision of The Hague. Therefore, said Mr. Bowen, unless there was a decision by The Hague there could be no payment at all, and he therefore asked Sir Michael to inform him as to his government's intention.

I. N. Seligman stated that President Roosevelt looks with favor upon the proposal of an international syndicate to pay off Venezuela's indebtedness.

Mr. Seligman called on Mr. Bowen. Mr. Bowen refused to entertain the proposal, which is that an international syndicate, composed of the Seligman, Speyer & Co., of New York and London and the Deutsche Gesellschaft of Berlin shall advance to Venezuela the sum sufficient to meet her obligations and take in payment 40 per cent of the customs of the two principal ports of Venezuela—probably La Guayra and Puerto Cabello. This sum might reach $50,000,000.

Mr. Seligman proposes that at least 10 per cent be the syndicate's commission.

The syndicate is looking after a guarantee by proposing that the United States government shall designate some person to administer the customs. It is considered doubtful here that the United States government would go so far as to place itself on record as favoring any syndicate idea as to designate such a person.

Mr. Bowen told Mr. Seligman he would use his influence against the designs of the syndicate, because he regarded the 10 per cent commission demanded a burden Venezuela can avoid by working out her own salvation through negotiations already begun here.

To abandon the scheme to go to The Hague, Mr. Bowen said, would be to lose a chance of the international status of collection of debts being defined, and would merely put off the day when that question was to be settled once for all.

Mr. Bowen has cabled to President Castro counseling against any arrangement with a syndicate, but the answers from Castro have been for the most part vague, merely indicating that President Castro will do "the right thing." It is thought here the influence of the syndicate has been brought strongly to bear on President Castro, and that he may yield to it.

THE COURTS

H. W. Cole, by his attorney, J. Howard Jones, has commenced suit in the Common Pleas Court against the Newark Investment Company and F. W. Windle.

The plaintiff alleges that he negotiated a loan of $29 on August 22, 1891, from the company, and that by agreement he was to pay 10 per cent interest monthly on the amount until the same was fully paid. Plaintiff says that thereafter and up to November, 1902, he paid the defendant at various times, various sums of money amounting in all to $45, and thereby fully discharged the obligation due defendant from him; that on November 24, 1902, plaintiff, at the request of defendant, executed for further security, for the original loan a certain assignment of his wages as they fell due monthly from the B. & O. railroad company.

The plaintiff says that defendant gave notice to the B. & O. to refuse to pay him his wages at that time, and that the company did refuse to pay him his wages; that the defendant threatened to continue to interfere with the payment of his wages in months to come, and that in order to secure his wages due on the 19th of March, 1903, the plaintiff was compelled to pay the defendant. $5 and execute a new assignment of even date for his wages for three months to come. Plaintiff says that by reason of the continued presentation of said pretended assignment of his wages that he will be discharged, and will suffer irreparable damage. He therefore prays that the Court declare said loan fully paid and said claim satisfied, and declare said assignments null and void.

Plaintiff also asks for a temporary injunction restraining defendant or its agent, F. M. Windle from collecting from the B. & O. any of the amounts due him or in any way interfering with the payment of his wages until the case can be fully heard.

A temporary injunction was issued by Judge Seward on Friday.

Suit For Damages.

Jacob Welch and Mary E. Welch, his wife, have sued the Columbus, Buckeye Lake and Newark Traction company for $1000 damages. The Welches reside on a farm abutting upon the National road in Truro township, and the traction line runs past their premises. Plaintiffs aver that the rails have been laid 15 inches higher than the grade of the road which seriously interferes with their ingress and egress. They further claim that the company has constructed a switchstand directly in front of their farm and the employees make so much noise during the night when operating the switch that their sleep is interfered with—Columbus Press.

NOOSE

SLIPPED WHEN OLESON WAS HANGED

Gruesome Spectacle in Minnesota This Morning—Murderer Killed His Daughter.

Atkin, Minn., March 20—Through a bungle in adjusting the noose the hanging here at 1:30 this morning of Ole Oleson, a Swedish farmer, resulted in a most gruesome affair. When the trap was sprung the knot slid from beneath the ear and tore a great hole in the dying man's neck. The wound bled so profusely that the body was completely drenched and the blood ran over the feet of the nearest spectators. He died hard. Oleson committed one of the most inhuman murders in the annals of Minnesota crime. He killed his own daughter, Josephine, on the evening of her wedding because she insisted on getting married and not remaining on his farm to keep him company and care for his home. A few hours before the time set for the wedding Oleson, without a word of warning, plunged a huge butter knife into the girl's breast. Her death was instantaneous.

West Virginia Trouble.

Washington, March 20—Solicitor General Hoyt, accompanied by District Attorney Atkinson, of West Virginia, visited the White House today and placed in the hands of the President a report of the special grand jury empaneled to consider the cause of Deputy Marshal Cunningham, under charge of engaging in the killing of three union strikers during the recent labor trouble near Charleston. It is said the finding is practically an exoneration of Cunningham and the other deputy marshals.

Prisoner Fought

Chicago, March 20—Geo. Willard, the man wanted in Cleveland for a diamond robbery, was captured here last night on a crowded street car by detectives. Willard fought hard and created a panic on the car but was finally subdued. He is also wanted for robbing a bank messenger in Paris, France, two years ago of $80,000 in gold and notes.

CLUB HOUSE

IS TO BE BUILT AT ONCE ON BEECH ISLAND.

Membership to be increased—Hotel to be Established on the Island for the Season.

The Directors of the Beech Island Outing Club had a full attended meeting at A. L. Rawlings' music store on Thursday night for the purpose of mapping out the proposed improvements that are to be made on the island, and arranging for the entertainments for the coming season.

Specifications have been prepared for extensive building improvements on the island, on which the club recently secured from the State Board of Public Works a fifteen year lease. All the present members of the club are enthusiastic in the purpose to make the island one of the most pleasant resorts in Central Ohio.

The present membership of the club is about 90, and it is proposed in the next few days to increase the membership to 150 and limit it to that number. The plan of the club contemplates not only monthly outings, but also a permanent hotel arrangement on the island, by which the members and their families can spend several days at a time.

At the meeting of the Directors on Thursday evening a committee consisting of Dan Altshool and A. L. Rawlings was appointed to procure equipments of various kinds needed by the club, and to take charge of the work of constructing the buildings on the grounds. Everything points to a successful year for the Beech Island Outing Club.
